

The boss who sometimes goes home early is not the man who when a young man came to business late, watched the clock and spent his money even BEFORE he got it.

NO. He started early, worked late and above all BANKED his money. You can do the same. DO IT.

Will Ratliff has been appointed a ranger on the forest patrol recently laid out in the Williams River wilderness and has commenced his rounds. The route commences at the Spruce Knob lookout on the head of the river, thence over to Black Mountain and down the divide between Hateful and Sugar Creeks to Williams River; across the river and up the dividing ridge between Rough Run and the Bannock Shoal to the knob at the Forks of Tea Creek; then around the head of Tea Creek and Gauley River to a point on the brow of Gauley Mountain overlooking the Elk Valley, and with the brow of this mountain to Red Lick Mountain, a distance of seven or eight miles. Then the trail follows the high mountain top to a point back of Lobelia, and thence around to the Forks of Cranberry and then back to the point of beginning. The trail is not less than seventy-five miles long and the most of the way has been cut out of the unbroken forest. A ranger is supposed to make the rounds in four or five days and temporary camps have been established at convenient intervals along the route. We would suppose that to make this patrol a really effective means of fire prevention that it would require the presence of not less than two rangers, or that it be cut into two patrols.

The sale of the houses, lots and lands at Campbelltown on yesterday was a great success, the sale aggregating $17,000. A big crowd was present, and everything that was put up sold. Major Combs, of Huntington, was present to cry the sale, as was our own Captain Swecker, who made a great many of the sales. The man went up a great distance with the balloon, but came down safely. The sale was under the direction of the Bowman Realty Company, of Huntington.

C. P. DOBB, DEAD

As we go to press the news comes of the death of C. P. Dobb, which occurred at his place, Clover Lick, this afternoon, Thursday. For the past six months he has been afflicted with cancer of the stomach. He was one of the most prominent men in the state, and at one time represented the district in Congress.

Elsie Mildred Pauline Carr, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Carr, died at her home near Clawson, October 1, 1914, at about 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon, after a few days illness. She was an unusually bright child, very kind and affectionate, leaving a lasting impression on all with whom she came in contact. She leaves one sister, one brother and a host of friends to mourn her departure. But nevertheless we sorrow not as those without hope, for we know that "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." And the Master has said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of Heaven." The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. J. M. Walker. Rock of Ages was sung, after which she was laid to rest in the family graveyard near Clawson.

"But when the angel Death has come, And called our flow'ret from our home, Oppressive silence reigns complete We miss the sound of little feet. "Yes mother 'tis the softest tread, Of her you miss and mourn as dead, And often in your sweetest sleep, You'll dream of h-aring little feet. "And when this pilgrimage is o'er And you approach the blissful shore, The first to run your soul to greet, Will be your darling's little feet." E. S.

As He Saw the Scheme. "Do you understand this building loan scheme?" asked the prospective investor. "Sure! They build you a house and you pay so much a month. By the time you are thoroughly dissatisfied with the place, it's yours," replied the knowing one.—New York Globe.

Small Causes of Fierce Wars. Borrowing a tobacco pipe and falling to return it kindled a civil war which lasted for years among the rival races in Pamir and Afghanistan. A dispute as to the relative attractions of snails and vipers as food started fifty years of fighting between Milan and Pisa.
